1. Plaintiff is a federal inmate currently incarcerated at Administrative United States Penitentiary Thomson. Currently, plaintiff has been incarcerated for approximately seven years. Since plaintiff has been incarcerated, plaintiff has sought to develop his skill as a writer, as plaintiff aspires to be a novelist. Plaintiff is currently in the process of writing a novel (legal thriller) which requires research consistent with the following Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") requests. Furthermore, Plaintiff has several law suits pending, and the FOIA requests will allow Plaintiff to ascertain information about the defendants in those law suits.

2. On or about July of 2018 Plaintiff submitted a FOIA request to the Office of Personnel Management ("OPM"), requesting that it disclose all data fields (name, salary, title, etc.) concerning all persons employed at the Bureau of Prisons ("BOP") in 2017. Plaintiff never received a response from the OPM in regard to this request even though

IV. Statement of Claim (Cont.)

Property). On or about September of 2019 Plaintiff submitted an inquiry letter to the BOP in regard to this request, but Plaintiff never received a response.

5. On or about March of 2019 Plaintiff submitted a FOIA request to the BOP, requesting that it disclose all information pertaining to all Civil suits rendered against any prison official employed at USP Lewisburg since the inception of the Special Management Unit at USP Lewisburg. The information was to consist of, but not be limited to, case name, settlement type, nature of suit, parties involved, etc. The BOP responded to the FOIA request, assigning Plaintiff a Tracking Number (currently unknown, as Plaintiff does not have access to his property); the BOP claimed that the request, which was considered "Complex", would take up to nine months to fulfill. On or about September of 2019 Plaintiff submitted an inquiry letter to the BOP in regard to this request, but Plaintiff never received a response.

6. On or about May of 2019 Plaintiff submitted a FOIA request to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives ("ATF"), requesting that it disclose a listing of all persons and/or businesses licensed in firearms and explosives in the state of Pennsylvania. The ATF responded to the FOIA request, assigning Plaintiff a Tracking Number (currently unknown, as Plaintiff does not have access to his property); the ATF claimed that the request, which was considered "Simple", would take up to sixty (60) days to fulfill. On or about September of 2019 Plaintiff submitted an inquiry letter to the ATF in regard to this request, but Plaintiff never received a response.

7. On or about May of 2019 Plaintiff submitted a FOIA/Privacy Act request to the Executive Office of United States Attorneys ("EOUSA"), requesting that it disclose all records in its possession pertaining to USA v. Landis (Fourth Circuit, North Carolina) and to Document 30-1 (of Docket Sheet) and the Docket Sheet of Bone v. Crawford (Third Circuit, Pennsylvania). The EOUSA responded to the FOIA request, assigning Plaintiff a Tracking Number (currently unknown, as Plaintiff does not have access to his property); the EOUSA never stated how long it would take to fulfill the "complex" request. On or about September of 2019 Plaintiff submitted an inquiry letter to the EOUSA in regard to this request, but ~~had not~~ Plaintiff never received a response.

8. To date, Plaintiff has not received any of the aforementioned FOIA requests.
